Cantab 1958

FOREWORD

The Junior Class of Cambridge High School has devoted a great deal of time and thought to make what we hope will be one of the best Cantabs yet.

This is your story . . . your work, achievements, and activities. You, the students, are what make this year book great.

We, the staff, hope that you will get much enjoyment from this Cantab, now and in the coming years. We have enjoyed the work involved in presenting to you, the students of C.H.S., the 1958 Cantab.

"There may be schools just as good, but there are none better."

Miss Susan Sumner
Representative of the Cambridge
Senior High School Annual Staff
Cambridge Junior High School
Cambridge, Ohio

Dear Miss Sumner:

I have selected the Canton Queen from among the photographs you sent me (see reverse side of envelope).

This has been a most pleasant though difficult task, since all of the young ladies had many qualities of beauty and personality!

Please extend my congratulations to the lovely Queen and my best wishes to all the young ladies.

May I request that all the photographs from which I made my selection be returned to your leading newspaper in the same perfect place so that all may enjoy their beauty.

I am enclosing the requested photograph of myself and am delighted to appear in your Annual.

With kindest regards to Miss Elaine, yourself and your Annual staff, and to the students and faculty of Cambridge Junior High.

Cordially,

Bob Cummings

CANTAB STAFF

Planning layouts, taking pictures, writing and editing copy, reading proof and rushing to meet the publication deadline kept the Cantab Staff busy from September to May.

The staff, headed by an editorial board of seven members, strove to give to the students a true picture of life at Cambridge High School. The faculty advisor for the editorial staff is Miss Marian Atkins.

Sally Solinger, Miss Arnold, Sally Toland, Barbara Penn, and Wayne Fairchild count tax stamps for the Cantab fund.

The business staff, under the direction of Miss Mary Arnold, faculty advisor, shoulders the responsibility of financing the Cantab. Soliciting for advertisements, collecting sales tax stamps, selling candy and supplies, and taking orders for the Cantab are a few of the responsibilities of this group. In addition, the business staff selects the cover for the book.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Under the leadership of its officers: president, Janet Driggs; vice-president, Bob Vance; secretary, Cathy Castner; and treasurer, Susan Foglesong, the Cambridge High School Student Council enjoyed a busy year. With the guidance of Miss Beryl Fishel, the advisor, many activities were successfully completed.

Traditional homecoming activities included the election of the queen and her court, presentation of the attendants at the football game and a homecoming dance.

The Christmas tree which the Council purchased and decorated added a bit of gaiety to the halls during the Christmas season.

They also sponsored various assemblies, checked coats at the basketball games, held a dance which raised fifty dollars for "Teens Against Polio," and sponsored "Mother's Night" for the mothers of the players on the basketball team.

Looking toward the future, the student council began the long, but important task of planning a code of ethics for the new high school. Janet Driggs represented the student body at the ground-breaking ceremonies for the new building.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The purpose of National Honor Society is to create enthusiasm for scholarship, stimulate the desire to give service, and to promote leadership and loyalty to the school at all times.

Those who are elected into the organization are given the highest honor which our school can confer. Members are chosen by the faculty and honor society members of the previous year. Only fifteen percent of the senior class may be elected.

This year, a dance was sponsored to buy new chair covers.

The officers were: president, Dave Roscoe; vice-president, Reba Lafferty; secretary, Donna Marlatt; treasurer, Rodney Lawyer. The faculty advisor was Miss Nancy McCreary.

REPORTER

For twenty-three years the 'Reporter" has been bringing to the students of Cambridge High School the latest news of classroom and club activities, of music, sports, entertainment, and fun.

Yes, we are proud of our C.H.S. Reporter, and the people who edit it. The advisor is Mr. Odebrecht; the managers and their staffs are as follows:

Co-Editors—Kay Camp, Carol Lake.

Co-Publication Managers—Sue Jones, Bob Robson.

Sports Staff—Linda Byard, manager; Bonnie Adams, Mary Louise Kiernan, Kay Price, Janet Aikin, Ray Eubanks and Becky Rigby.

On May 13, the annual Reporter Staff Banquet was held. Two projects sponsored by the staff during the year were the baby picture contest, in the interest of the polio fund and a bake sale, to raise extra money for a special feature of the final issue of the Reporter.

Boys with a purpose?

KEY CLUB

The Key Club is one of our outstanding boy's clubs. Only boys of high scholastic ability who are willing to work, as well as have fun, are admitted. The club is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, which lends its hand whenever the club needs advice or help.

Key Club activities this year included — the Christmas store — assistance to a needy family — Key Club Convention — spring house cleaning — attending Lenten service — a luncheon date with a movie star.

FUTURE TEACHERS

Beverly Wencek, as president, led the Future Teachers through a very successful year. A dance was held to buy books for one member of the club for her first year in college. A bake sale and teaching in the public schools were also highlights of the year. Other officers were vice-president, Donna Marlatt; secretary, Linda Byard; treasurer, Sue Jones; librarian, Barbara Frakes; historian, Susan Andrews; and reporter, Carol Lake.

Y-Teens in full force

Y-TEENS

Y-Teens, the teenage group of the YWCA, is one of the largest and most active clubs in our school and community. Membership is open to any senior, junior, or sophomore girl regardless of race, religion or nationality.

To grow as a person, to grow in friendship with people of all races, religions, and nationalities, and to grow in the knowledge and love of God are the Y-Teen goals.

Using the theme, "What's Cookin'?" the club had a very successful year. Highlights of the year were the retreat at Johnny Appleseed Inn, the traditional Candlelight Recognition Service, the Thanksgiving scavenger hunt, which benefited needy families, the formal, "Hearts and Flowers", Talent Night, and Senior Farewell.

This year's officers were: president, Bess Siegfried; vice-president, Janet Driggs; secretary, Susan Sohner; treasurer, Mary Lou Oliver. The faculty advisors were Miss Hazel McCulley and Miss Martha Meitzer.

Y-TEENS

The officers shoulder the responsibility of the organization and choose the cabinet members. Each meeting of the year is then planned by a member of the cabinet and her committee. Pictured below are members of the 1957-1958 cabinet.

Working hand in hand with the American Red Cross, the Junior Red Cross Council completed a successful year. Two representatives were chosen from each homeroom, making a total membership of thirty-four.

Reba Lafferty was elected to the office of president and was assisted by John Pryor, vice-president and Nancy Frost, secretary-treasurer. The main project for the year was the solicitation of memberships in the American Junior Red Cross in all homerooms. Miss Anderson is the faculty advisor.

PROJECTIONISTS

The projectionists of Cambridge High School are of real service to the various classrooms and departments. These students take time from their study halls to provide education through films. Each one has been trained by Mr. Bretschneider to operate the equipment.

CHESS CLUB

The chess club was a new organization this year. Regular meetings were held at the Y.M.C.A., but members could be found matching wits every day in room 45. The club was organized by Mr. Frederick Bretschneider, who also turned out to be the best player, although Jim Mickle became a slight threat to his supremacy near the close of the year. Many new chess fans were found due to the efforts of the chess club.

BAND

The Cambridge High School Band is an organization of which the school should be proud.

The band faithfully performed at the football games, for which many hours were spent practicing. In addition to the games, the band performed at the Muskingum Homecoming, the ground-breaking for our new high school, the Guernsey County Fair, and gave a concert at the State Theater.

DANCE BAND

The C.H.S. Dance Band was a newly formed organization this year. The purpose of the dance band is to acquaint students with the difference between dance music and other types of music.

The band has gained a name for itself not only at C.H.S., but in other schools in the vicinity.

The band, under the direction of Ray Eubanks, was assisted by Bill Geese, Wayne McCracken, Wayne Fairchild, and Jim Mitchell, serving as section leaders, and Jay Maioli, who was librarian. The advisor was Mr. Howard Max.

Seated: Bob Gregg, Carolyn Warden, Sandi Brown, Carol Lake, Dean Wells.

BAND COUNCIL

The C.H.S. Band Council was organized this year for the purpose of student discipline and to sponsor activities to keep interest in the high school band.

Activities were the organizing of an intraband football and basketball league, formation of a dance band, sponsorship of the appearance of the Ohio University Band, shoe polish sale, spring concert.

Row 2. Martha Zaring, Keith McKnight, Pat Brindle.
Row 1. Margaret Amos, Curt Myers, Nancy Frost.

ORCHESTRA

The orchestra is a school organization which provides music whenever called upon.

The main project for the year was a spring concert, which was presented on April twenty-fourth. The theme was "Stardust" and the song of that name was used as background music during a narration, which was featured as a part of the program.

The orchestra also played for the junior class play, the Hi-Y play and the commencement program. Mrs. Jane Gray is the director.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

The Girls' Glee Club, directed by Mr. Krunnfusz, was composed of girls from the sophomore and junior classes. The club sang in the Christmas Concert, Spring Concert, and Pops Concert.

The training that these girls receive in the glee club enables many of them to qualify for membership in the high school choir.

SWING CHOIR

The newest addition to the vocal groups, is the Swing Choir. It is composed of boys and girls who can read music well and have exceptional voices. The Swing Choir specializes in popular songs, mainly standards, and occasional novelty numbers.

They sang at various programs throughout the year, including: the Fall National Honor Society Induction . . . a program at the Cambridge State Hospital . . . The Christmas Concert . . . Pops Night . . . and the little Concerta given in each of the elementary schools.

"Krunny's Krumbs" was first brought into the spotlight when they won first place in a talent show at the high school, which was sponsored by the Sunshine Boys. They later sang on the Sunshine Boys' program on television. They also presented numbers for concerts and organizational meetings.

JUNIOR PLAY

The acting ability of the junior class was uncovered in their class play, "Father Knows Best," which was presented May 1 in the high school auditorium.

The play was adapted from the television series of the same title. It was a three act comedy depicting the troubles of parents with their children, especially teenagers.

Stage managers were Jim Bragg and John Ross. The play was directed by Miss McCulley with Carole Rogovin serving as student director.

CHEERLEADERS

Pep, vim, vigor, and vitality are essential qualifications for every CHS cheerleader. The select six were elected last spring by the student body. Highlight of the year was the annual cheerleading clinic at Ohio State University which the girls attended with their advisor, Mrs. Richey. Under the direction of their captain, Linda Byard, the squad played a vital part in all the games and pep rallies. How could we get along without the peppy backing and encouragement these girls provide!

The Reserve cheerleading squad boasted five girls this year. When the first captain, Pat Smith, dropped out because of illness, Pam DeVault was chosen to fill the vacancy and Polly Merrill was chosen captain. The girls performed at basketball games and pep rallies and purchased the sharp, blue crew-neck sweaters with proceeds from the dance they sponsored. Congratulations girls!

VARSITY FOOTBALL

The 1957 football season got off to a roaring start this year. Under the leadership of the new coach, Paul Bremigan, Friday the 13th didn't prove unlucky for the Bobcats, who beat Barnesville 38 to 20 that brisk October night when one thousand loyal Bobcat Boosters crowded into the bleachers at Pine Field with blue and white shakers in their hands and victory on their minds.

Rodney Lawyer and Hank Cross were co-captains of our hard fighting, energetic team. This was Paul Bremigan's first season with the Bobcats, and a fine job he did, too.

We played Columbus North, September 20th in the pouring rain and what a game! The spectators sat in the rain and the boys wallowed in the mud. Oh, it's heartbreaking to lose a game by one point—13-12 to be exact.

Let's just forget the Newark game. That 32-13 score is a sore point for Bremigan and boys.

The Bobcats trotted on to the field October 4th with determination in their eyes and danced back after a terrific game with victory on their lips. It was Dover's turn to weep this time, and the score was 14-13.

Zanesville 60, Cambridge 7 — no other comment about our fifth game of this season.

October 18 was homecoming but after a gallant struggle we fell to defeat at the hands of Coshocton, 12-7. The taste of defeat was still in the air.

Victory at last! Things were pretty grim for a while but after triumphing over Marietta, 18 to 13, the sky looked blue again.

The icy breath of winter was upon us at last. It blew a harsh grasping breath at the majorette's bare legs and those brave shivering boosters who came to yell right back with enthusiasm.

Lancaster and Chillicothe really put a dent in our record, the scores being 34-0 and 53-0 respectively. Not much can be said except, "Better luck next time."

Wooster was the final contest and although improvement was made, victory wasn't our cry. The score was 34 to 19.

Don McConaha and Chuck Simpson brought honor to the team and themselves by receiving honorable mention on the all-COL team.

Even though our record was three wins and seven defeats, the team will be remembered for its "never say die" spirit and plucky efforts.

Sandi makes a speech!

To be homecoming queen is every girl's dream. This year Sandi Brown won the honor and reigned for an evening over the festivities at Pine Field. Her attendants were Bonnie Adams, Donna Marlatt, Kay Camp, and Sandy Smith. Bob Gray was Sandi's escort and Rodney Lawyer, Ron Coriell, Bill Trischler and Steve Baker respectively, escorted the attendants.

Janet Driggs, president of the student council, acted as mistress of ceremonies and presented our former queen, Connie Ankrom, who crowned this year's queen. She received the traditional kisses from the co-captains, flowers, and good wishes and took her place of honor in front of the bleachers to watch the game.

"I'm sitting on top of the world" would have been a fitting phrase as the girls breezed around the field in flashy cars, snug in the crowd's enveloping cheers.

Wrapped up in more than the game.

The homecoming dance was held in the gym after the game and proved a perfect climax to a wonderful evening.

VARSITY "C"

The Varsity "C" is made up of boys at CHS who have earned at least one letter in a sport. The club helped sponsor several dances, sold programs at basketball games and participated in the Faculty versus Varsity C basketball game. Officers of the organization were: president, Dave DeSelm; vice president, Bill Trischler; and secretary-treasurer, Bob Vance.

Row 1—Fred Shimp, Jim Hopkins, Terry Coss, Kenny Price, Ed Griffith, Van Olnhausen, Bob Castner, Bill Oiler.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Bobcats, under the capable leadership of Coach Al Joseph, gave their opponents real competition this year. The games were for the most part, close and exciting. Seven of the eighteen games played ended in victory for the Bobcats, eleven in defeat. Several of the boys were honored by being named on the All-C.O.L. team and the All-Opponent team. Bill Van Camp earned a berth on the second All-C.O.L., and Dave DeSelm received honorable mention on the same team. On the All-Opponent team Dave DeSelm rated a position, with honorable mention going to Bill Trischler and Bill Van Camp. These three stand out as spark plugs of the 1957-1958 basketball season but the entire squad deserves hearty congratulations for games well played.

This year was highlighted by competition for three trophies, which were awarded to outstanding players. The Most Valuable Player trophy went to Dave DeSelm. Fellow team members made the final choice for this award but game statistics played an important part in the selection.

The Best Foul Shooter trophy went to Bill Trischler, who had the highest average for foul shooting.

The Bobcats represent Cambridge High School. They should display qualities of good sportsmanship and conduct at all times. Characteristics like these are a part of any good team and ones that our Bobcat squad ex-exemplified this year.

G. A. A.

Athletic minded girls find the G.A.A. a club suited to their interests. To be eligible for membership, a girl must have 25 points earned by participating in various sports. Letters are awarded those girls who earn 200 points.

Popular activities of the year were the noon basketball and volleyball games, initiation, playday and parties. The G.A.A. formal is a highlight of the school year, anticipated by all.

MAY DAY

May Day was never more lovely than this year when the girls' gym. classes built their program around the theme, "Somewhere Over the Rainbow." Under the direction of Mrs. Richey, the girls decorated the gym., arranged the throne, planned and performed in the various dances.

Reigning over the festivities this year were Bonnie Adams and her court: Phyllis Greenwood, maid of honor, and Joyce Duffey, Martha Burris, Cathy Castner, and Sandy Smith, attendants. Bonnie was a lovely queen and the entire school enjoyed the pageant of dances presented in honor of her and her court. The minuet, the sword dance, and the traditional May pole dance were perhaps the most colorful of the many interesting dances. Although our celebration of May Day does not date back many years, we hope that it will always be one of the traditions at Cambridge High.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In September of 1954 the class of '58 began its four year quest for knowledge.

With eagerness and confidence we took our place as upper classmen of Brown Junior High.

As Freshmen we were leaders of the first Brown High Student Council with Janet Driggs as president.

We took an active part in G.A.A., Hi-Y, Choir, Dramatics, Camera Club and "Reporter" affairs.

The highlights of the year were "Mississippi Melody", presented by the choir and dramatic classes, the Science and Music Contests, the Queen of Hearts Valentine Day Dance and the Freshman Class Party.

Open the door,
Shut the gate.
We're the class of '58!

With this cheer we, as apprehensive sophomores, took our places in high school life.

Heading our class were Alan Trott, serving as president; Carole Evans, vice-president; Donna Marlatt, secretary; and Sue Jones, treasurer.

Representing us on the Student Council were Kay Camp and Dave DeSelm, serving as members at large, and Janet Driggs, Linda King, Ed Griffith, Jim Mickle and Bob Robson, serving as home room representatives.

We joined G.A.A., Y-Teen, Red Cross, Future Nurses, Future Teachers, Glee Club, Pi Alpha Nu, Key Club, Varsity "C", band and orchestra. Sophomore Hi-Y prexy was Jim Mickle and reserve cheerleaders were Linda Byard and Kay Price.

Bringing honors to our class were Sandi Brown, who received an excellent rating in the State Solo and Ensemble Contest for her vocal solo; Larry Mercer, who received an award of merit for an industrial arts exhibit at the State Industrial Arts Convention; and Kay Camp, who was an attendant on the May Day Court.

Remember the Y-Teen Formal, the Key Club Banquet, the G.A.A. Formal, Jerome Kern night, the Sophomore Class Parties, the "Reporter" Banquet, and the Athletic Carnival?

To guide us during our important year as Juniors, we elected Henry Cross president, Ed Griffith vice-president, Rodney Lawyer, secretary and Don McConaha, treasurer.

Members at large to the Student Council were Kay Camp, Janet Driggs, Ed Griffith and Rodney Lawyer. Home room representatives were Bob Coyer, Carole Evans, Jim Mickle, Ronnie Sniffen and Alan Trott.

Chosen to represent our class at Girls' State was Kay Camp and Boys' State representatives were Henry Cross, Dave DeSelm, Rodney Lawyer and Dave Roscoe.

Many members of our class assumed leadership in several extra-curricular activities. Marge Bruner, Linda Byard and Kay Camp headed the production of the '57 Cantab. Elaine Fahner was elected president of Future Nurses. Alan Trott headed the Junior Hi-Y and Rodney Lawyer served as president of Varsity "C". Linda Byard represented our class on the varsity cheerleading squad and Kay Price captained the reserve group. Junior majorettes were Doris Baker and Sandi Brown.

The Junior Class was well represented in all sports activities. Don McConaha, center of the football team, received a berth on the All C.O.L. elite.

leads in the operettas "Cumberland Fair" and "Down in the Valley". The class play, "Onions in the Stew", drew an exceptionally large crowd, and the Hi-Y presentation, "Hillbilly Weddin' " was a success.

The major events of the year were the acquisition of our class rings, the success of our ensembles at the music contest, selling of candy and stationery and the social events such as club banquets and formals.

The major social event of the year, of course, was the Junior-Senior Prom which we sponsored. The theme "King Neptune's Court", was beautifully elaborated by the use of lighting effects, murals and crepe paper.

Bonnie Adams, Janet Driggs, Dave DeSelm and Ed Griffith were elected members at large to the Student Council while Sandi Brown, Jim Mickle, Alan Trott and Carole Evans were chosen as home room representatives.

Members of the Senior Class headed most of the school activities. Bess Siegfried was president of Y-Teens, Ginger Harris headed G.A.A., Jim Mickle presided over the Senior Hi-Y, Dave Roscoe was prexy of National Honor Society, Dave DeSelm served as president of Varsity "C", Janet Driggs guided the Student Council, Bev Wencek was president of Future Teachers, and Kay Camp and Carol Lake were co-editors of the "Reporter".

Rodney Lawyer and Hank Cross were co-captains of the football team and Linda Byard was elected captain of the varsity cheerleaders. Other Senior varsity cheerleaders were Bonnie Adams, and Kay Price.

Although we didn't have a winning season, many of our boys were rewarded for their efforts. Charles Simpson and Don McConaha received honorable mention in the All-C.O.L. grid team. Bill Van Camp was accorded honorable mention on the All-Ohio basketball team. He also received an All-C.O.L. second team berth and honorable mention C.O.L. All-Opponent team. Dave DeSelm made the second team of the All-Opponent elite and honorable mention on the All-C.O.L. team. Bill Trischler was awarded an honorable mention on the All-Opponent team.

Trophies awarded this year went to Van Camp, Best Floor Man; Trischler, Best Foul Shooter; and DeSelm, Most Valuable Player.

Other awards accorded members of our class were high ratings on the Ohio Senior Scholarship Test. Jim Mickle placed third in the county, Dave DeSelm placed ninth in the county and Steve Baker, Janet Driggs, Donna Marlatt, Dave Roscoe and Bev Wencek received honorable mention in the county. Dave Roscoe also won the local American Legion Essay Contest and Donna Marlatt placed first in the D.A.R. History Test. Carole Evans, Dave DeSelm and Charles Hayes were the high scorers in a current events test and consequently attended the World's Current Affairs Institute in Cincinnati.

Among the memories of our senior year are the National Honor Society inductions, the Y-Teen Formal, at which Phyllis Greenwood and Charles Hayes reigned, the Junior-Senior Prom, May Day, the "Reporter" Banquet, the Key Club Formal, Pops Night, the G.A.A. Formal and the Hi-Y Banquet.

Of course, we'll always remember Senior Day Off, Senior Class Night, Senior Banquet, the solemn Baccalaureate Service, Commencement and the All-Night Party.

Our four year quest of knowledge now completed and ladened with memories, we face the future . . . beginning a new search along the highway of life.

JUNIORS

The Junior Class of C.H.S. worked hard to carry out their many responsibilities. Under the guidance of their advisor, Mr. Merrilees, they planned and sponsored several money-making projects. Highlights of the year included the candy and bake sales, the mile of pennies, junior class play, publishing the Cantab, and the Junior-Senior Prom.

Class officers were: Lee Rausch, president; Ray Eubanks, vice president; Susan Sohner, secretary; Becky Rigby, treasurer.

. . . . . Citizens of today . . . . . .

Working with our superintendent, Mr. Shelby, and H. D. Thomas, Building Superintendent, members of the Cambridge Board of Education are among the many citizens of today who are giving generously of their time in the interest of building citizens of tomorrow. At the present time, this group is particularly concerned with the construction and furnishing of a new high school for the future citizens of Cambridge.

A sincere interest in the individual boy and girl and an earnest desire to help each student to develop those qualities that will make him a good citizen of our democracy are characteristics which are the marks of a good high school principal. With the assistance of Miss Fishel and Mr. Frame, Mr. McFarland plans and puts into action each year a program for Cambridge High School which is motivated by those qualities. We believe that our administrative staff is truly interested in the citizens of tomorrow.

Seated — Cecil J. McFarland, Principal.
Right — Beryl Fishel, Assistant Principal.

SECRETARY

Assisted by a number of interested and dependable senior girls, Mrs. Glover Dudley, Secretary to the Principal, keeps the office at Central High running smoothly.

C. H. Merrilees, Paul Bremigan, Frederick Bretschneider.

SCIENCE

Introducing high school students to the possibilities of achievement in the field of science is the privilege of the men who conduct classes in chemistry, biology and physics in our high school.

In addition to his chemistry classes, Mr. Merrilees is the advisor for the junior class and the Junior Hi-Y Club. Mr. Bremigan is head football coach, reserve basketball coach, advisor for the Varsity "C" Club, and biology teacher. Mr. Bretschneider teaches physics and biology, advises the Projectionists and the Chess Club, a new organization this year.

BUSINESS EDUCATION

Preparing C.H.S. students for positions in the business world is the purpose of the business education department. Classes in shorthand, typing, secretarial practice and office practice are taught by Miss Alloway and Miss Anderson. Miss Alloway is also advisor for Future Teachers of America and the sophomore class advisor. Miss Anderson is the faculty advisor for the Junior Red Cross Council.

Doris Alloway, Lucille Anderson

Icing a cake is interesting business!

The beautiful dresses and suits, which are modeled, and the refreshments which are served at the annual Home Economics Style Show and Tea each spring, are significant of the worth of this department to the girls of Cambridge High Scool. Miss Meitzer conducts clothing classes for senior high school girls and is a faculty advisor for Y-Teens. Mrs. Bennett teaches foods and also conducts a class in world geography. Mrs. Moore teaches both foods and clothing to girls from Brown Junior High School and Mrs. Conley conducts a class in family living, which is popular with both junior and senior girls.

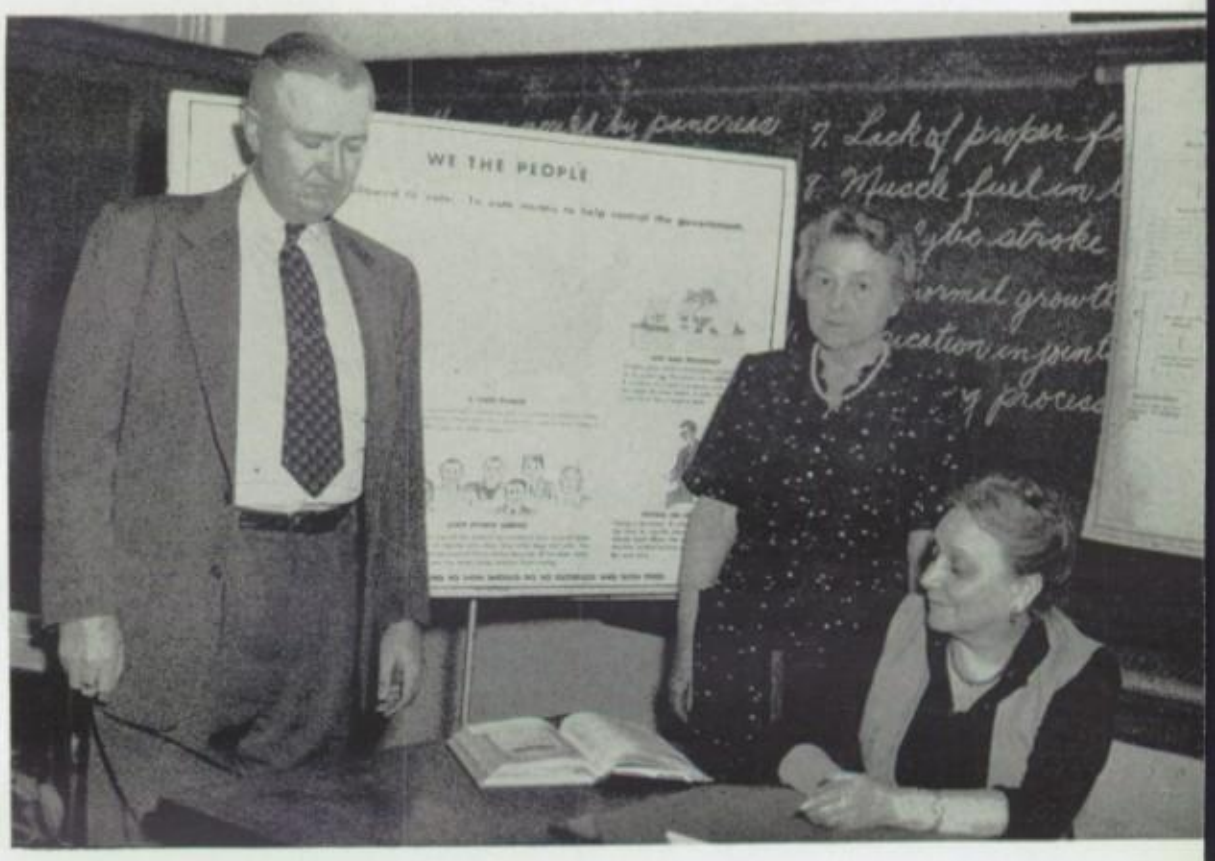
SOCIAL STUDIES

No department contributes more toward the building of citizens of tomorrow than the social studies department. A knowledge of the past, an interest in present day events, an understanding of the philosophy and mechanics of our government are all to be gained from participation in the classes in this department.

In addition to her duties as vice-principal and advisor to the Student Council, Miss Fishel conducts classes in civics and problems in democracy. Mr. Frame, who is also dean of boys, teaches classes in world history. Miss Johns teaches classes in United States history.



James W. Frame, Beryl Fishel, Mary Johns

ENGLISH

To create in every pupil the desire to speak and write the mother tongue correctly and effectively is the English teacher's dream and members of that department at Cambridge High School are no exception.

In addition to classes in English III, Miss Atkins teaches United States history and is advisor to the editorial staff of the Cantab and the student librarians. Miss McCreary conducts classes in English II and world history and is the advisor to the National Honor Society, and the senior class.

Miss McCulley teaches speech and journalism as well as classes in English II. She is Y-Teen advisor and coaches the junior play. Mr. Brown is advisor to the Senior Hi-Y Club and has classes in English II and English III.

Bruce Beymer, William Green, William Ronk

Many of our students find the classes in arts and industry valuable in aiding them in selecting their life work. Mr. Beymer is director of the student learner program and conducts classes in machines, automotives, welding and foundry. Mr. Green teaches printing, photography and mechanical drawing, and woodworking is taught by Mr. Ronk.

Classes taught by Mrs. Liddell, Mr. Rawlins, and Mrs. Ludlow exemplify the desire of the school to meet the needs of individual students. Mrs. Liddell gives instruction in art to students who show ability or interest in that field, and Mrs. Ludlow conducts special classes in English and social studies. Mr. Rawlins is in charge of the trade and industry program which was inaugurated this year.

With Mr. Thompson as director of the athletic program, Mr. Bremigan, head football coach, and track coach; Mr. Joseph, basketball coach, and Mrs. Richey, Mr. Bremigan and Mr. Hackenberg in charge of all physical education classes, we feel that our physical education program is in excellent hands.

Mr. Bremigan teaches classes in biology and physical education and is the Varsity "C" Club advisor. Mrs. Richey advises the G.A.A., trains the cheerleaders, and helps plan pep meetings and programs. Mr. Hackenberg coaches the tennis team and teaches civics in addition to the physical education classes.

MUSIC

The excellent performances of the band, choir and orchestra attest to the high quality of instruction in the high school music department. Mr. Max conducts both the marching band and the concert band and gives valuable assistance to the dance band. The choirs, glee club and ensembles are under the direction of Mr. Krunnfusz. String instruction is given by Mrs. Gray, who also conducts the orchestra.

LANGUAGES

Since science has brought the nations of the world closer together, it is important that students become familiar with languages other than their own. Cambridge High School students may choose French, Spanish or Latin. Miss Arnold teaches Latin and bookkeeping and is advisor to the business staff of the Cantab and the Future Nurses Club. Miss Bell conducts classes in Spanish and English and Mr. Odebrecht gives instruction in French as well as advanced algebra and geometry. He is the advisor to the Reporter staff.

DRIVER EDUCATION

Miss Blackburn and Mr. Lyne instruct six classes in driver education and training. These classes are open to seniors and juniors with the intention of preparing high school youth to assume the responsibilities involved in the operation of a motor vehicle.

The cafeteria line

Mr. Gary, Mr. Rice and Mr. Nally have few idle moments. Cutting the grass, stoking the furnaces, keeping the building clean and in repair are among their many tasks.

BROWN JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

. . . . Brown Junior High School . . . . .

Ebert Moorehead

Mr. Moorehead and his staff share the all important responsibility of guiding the youth of Cambridge in the transition period between the elementary school and the senior high school. It is here that many aims and ambitions are first formed.

Mrs. Jeanette M. Wilson
Secretary to Mr. Moorehead

Mr. Combs is assistant principal and teaches classes in science.

Mrs. Carver conducts classes in algebra and general business; Miss Johnson teaches dramatics and directs the many plays that are presented at Brown Junior High; and Mr. Arnold teaches music and directs the girls' glee club.

Seated—Mrs. Harriette Carver.
Standing—Lucile Johnson, Larry Arnold, Floyd Combs.

. We present the Freshmen and their Teachers .

Miss Thompson, a newcomer to Brown Junior High School this year, teaches English; Miss Williams has classes in both English and Latin, and Mr. Lyne, science. Miss Thompson is an advisor to the Reporter staff and Mr. Lyne advises the newly organized Science Club.

Jean Thompson, Bruce Lyne,
Gail Williams

Al. Joseph, Mrs. Margaret Reed,
Mrs. Ruth Johnson, Sanford Lyne

Mrs. Reed teaches general business and business mathematics; Mrs. Johnson is in the English department; and Mr. Lyne has classes in general mathematics. Mr. Joseph coaches varsity football and teaches art.
